RADFORDS GAIN TITLE.

Olympia A. C. and Seventeen-yearold Champs.

The Olympia A. C., claimants of the District championship, averaging sevenleen to eighteen years, were severely beaten by the strong Radford A. C., of Southwest, on the former's grounds by the score of 10 to 1.

The marked features of the game were the clever pitching of the veteran Giovannetti, who allowed but four well-scattered hits to the losing team, and also the sensational fielding of the infield, which pulled the winning pitcher out of a few tight holes. Line-up of the seven teen-year-old champions: Waters, first base; Waple, shortstop; Shields, center field; Saurs, second base; Schaffer, third base; B. SUICIDE, SAYS NEWBERRY.

Detroit, Mich., July 20.-Truman H. Newberry, former Secretary of the Navy, does not believe the inquiry now being held at Annapolis into the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton, who is supposed to have killed himself in a broil with his fellow-officers October 12, 1907, will result in any other conclusion than that the death of the officer was self-inflicted, as was determined when the first inquiry was held during Mr. Newberry's term of office.

Mr. Newberry is now in Detroit. He says Sutton killed

"There were only three witnesses to the incident," said Mr. Newberry, "and as I read the testimony of vesterday's session I recalled that it was exactly what Adams had testified at the first

"There has been nothing new brought out. There was not a shred of evidence that Sutton was killed by any of his companions. Yet it is perfectly right that this second inquiry should be held. The family are right and taking the natural course when they demand further investigation. Any mother would do her utmost to remove the stain from her son's memory, and I can understand and appreciate her position.

"I had an interview with Mrs. Sutton. In fact, the story that I refused to see her and turned her down was an absolute lie. I treated her as I would my own mother, and was very sympathetic. But there was not a shred of evidence, and her attitude is simply the result of the natural feelings of a mother who wants to save a son's name."
